Okay so unless you've been under a rock for the past 3 years, you've probably heard of Mike Filsaime's Butterfly Marketing. And if unless you've been under a rock for the past month or so, then you've heard that Mike is giving away 5,000 copies of the sequel for free! That's right, f r e e! All you have to do is pay the shipping and handling and sign up for his print newsletter. Grand total to you is about $30. That's a steal for $2,000 worth of software and training! Well the launch was today and well, there were some server issues. Okay a LOT of server issues. But Mike's loss is your gain, because for the next 48 hours, if you can get in, you can still grab it for free. After that it goes right back up to its original price of $2,000!

Okay, enough out of me, head on over to Butterfly Marketing 2.0 and go grab your copy now!

Go! Shoo! Head on over to ButterflyMarketing.com right now and get your copy. Go! Go! Go!
